1. Due to amendments and persuasive arguments by applicant, the previous rejections of record based on Müller-Rees et al. and/or Ramlow et al. have been overcome and are hereby withdrawn.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. These amendment to new claim 11 were made to bring the claim and it's dependent claims within the scope of the allowable subject matter according to claim 1. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS

In claim 11, line 5, before "0.50", insert --less than--.

In claim 11, line 5, after "0.50", delete "or less".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: While Müller-Rees et al. teach a thermoplastic composition comprising a crosslinked cholesterol liquid crystal pigment, they do not teach the pigments to be contained in the composition in a quantity less than 0.50 parts per weight. As most of the examples in Müller-Rees et al. exemplify significantly higher concentrations, Müller-Rees et al. is not suggestive of lower concentrations.

Some prior art teach crosslinked cholesterol liquid crystal pigments and other prior art teach thermoplastic compositions comprising various concentrations of comprising organic pigments. However, none of the prior art was found to teach or sufficiently suggest the present transparent/translucent thermoplastic composition comprising at least one cholesterol liquid crystal polymeric plate shaped pigment, wherein the pigment is in a quantity of less than 0.50 parts by weight based on 100 parts by weight of the thermoplastic material.

Thus, claims 1-14 to the composition, the process of using the composition and the article prepared from the composition are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
